

10 December

Dinner buffet with a guest speaker

Restaurang Rosenbad, Rosenbad 4, Stockholm at 19.00 - 21.30

11 December

Workshop on how to realize the full potential of the bioeconomy

Tvålpalatset, S:t Paulsgatan 29, Stockholm

08:00 - 09:00	Registration and coffee
09:00 - 09:20	Opening speech by Eskil Erlandsson , the Swedish Minister for Rural Affairs
09:20 - 09:25	Presentation round and today's program
09:25 - 09:45	Review of possibilities, the potential of new products and markets and stock-taking of biobased-solutions in the Baltic Sea Region Helge Sigurd Næss-Schmidt , Director, Copenhagen Economics
09:45 - 10:30	7 short presentations - Review of possibilities and new value chains and stock-taking of bio-solutions in the Baltic Region: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Regional Development – Hans Jørgen Jensen, Local Action Group for Bornholm• Protein Value Chain – Knud Tybirk, Agro Business Park Phosphorous Value Chain – Gitte Holton Rubæk, Aarhus University• Blue Value Chain – Helge Paulsen, Nordic Working Group for Fisheries and Aquaculture Cooperation• Green Value Chain – Katrine Hahn Kristensen, Nordic Forest Research• Brown Value Chain – Olav Rasmussen, Blue Planet Innovation• Innovative Financing – Thomas Norrby, Swedish University of Agricultural Sciences
10:30-11:00	Coffee break
11:00-11:50	1 st working group session Where do the participants see the greatest potentials? Which activities would make the Baltic Sea Region to the European center of bioeconomy?
11:50 - 12:15	Presentations in plenary and discussions of projects prioritized by the working groups
12:15 - 13:15	Lunch
13:15 - 13:30	EU Strategy for the Baltic Sea Region: How we move beyond a policy prescription to action. NN , European Commission (tbc)

- 13:30 - 14:00 Funding perspectives on the bioeconomy cooperation in the Baltic Sea Region.
Thomas Winther, Innogate
- 14:00 - 14:15 Presentation of the project opportunities prioritized at the morning working group session, and introduction to the 2nd working group session – the “project match making” – where the participants can choose working groups based in individual interest
- 14:15 - 14:30 Coffee break
- 14:30 - 15:30 2nd working group session
Development of action plans in the working groups, plan for how the projects can become reality. What will we do to contribute towards developing the bioeconomy in the Baltic Sea Region?
- 15:30 - 15:45 Presentations in plenary of selected future projects – the possible Flagship projects?
- 15:45 - 15:55 How the Nordic Council of Ministers envisions the facilitation of a green transition and strengthening of the bioeconomy in the Baltic Sea Region?
- 15:55 - 16:00 Closing remarks